Review

A highly comprehensive yet accessible text which successfully presents a critical evaluation of current developments in the subject. This second edition includes an excellent fresh chapter on strategic HRM.

—Stephen Wood

In a globalising world, Bratton and Gold's new edition narrows the gap between teachers of HRM and the 'Holy Grail' of HRM in a truly international contemporary textbook suitable for both graduate and undergraduate students.

—Bruce McCallum

This book provides the most comprehensive textbook in HRM I have seen so far...it should be a 'must' for every course in HRM in the UK and continental Europe and overseas.

—Povl Erik Jensen

Copenhagen Business School

Clearly written, accessible, interesting, and well-referenced with up-to-date sources...

—Jane Thompson

In a word, one of my very favourite texts for the opening of the next millennium.
