Secret Agent Jack Stalwart: Book 14: The Mission to Find Max: Egypt By Elizabeth Singer Hunt

The Mission to Find Max (Book 14) Jack joined the Global Protection Force for two reasons: to thwart evil around the world and to rescue his brother, Max, who went missing while working as a GPF agent. The GPF refused to share any details with Jack about Max's whereabouts, but on two previous missions, Jack had collected clues that pointed to Max is being in Egypt. Now Jack has reason to believe that King Tut's diadem—a crown thought to have magical powers—is the cause of Max's disappearance. The crown was so important that King Tut was buried with it on his head, but when the boy-pharaoh's tomb was opened in 1922, an assistant archaeologist named Omar Massri stole the artifact. Could a descendant of Massri somehow be involved in Max's disappearance? Jack and his old friend Kate must prevent an ancient and terrible curse of the pharaohs from wreaking havoc, or else Egypt—and Jack's brother—could be doomed.

Editorial Review

Review

VOYA (Voice of Youth Advocates), February 2012

“Each book in the series is a quick read with plenty of action and, most importantly, lots of information about history...Nonetheless, the educational purpose of the books does not take too much away from Jack’s adventures...Best of all, throughout the series, the young characters come out on top, which is always fun to read.”

About the Author

Elizabeth Singer Hunt is originally from New Orleans and now lives in San Francisco. She moved to the UK in 1999 for an MA in Southeast Asian studies and then worked in brand marketing. Inspired by her love of travel and the birth of her son, she created the Jack Stalwart series. The series has been selected by Britain's education secretary as well as the popular Richard and Judy Children's Book Club for its ability to appeal to and enthrall younger boy readers.
