Editorial Review

Review

To lay the theological foundation of Saddleback Church, I spent two years teaching through the book of Romans verse-by-verse to our congregation. During those two years, nothing encouraged me more personally as I prepared those messages than the tape-recorded messages on the book of Romans by my dear friend Chuck Swindoll. Chuck modeled how to teach profound biblical truths in clear, concise, and practical ways. I'm thrilled to see his teaching on Romans in the single published volume, Insights on Romans, and am eager to purchase the rest of the series as it comes out. --Rick Warren, Saddleback Church, author of The Purpose Driven Life

Chuck Swindoll has been a faithful and wise teacher of God's Word for many decades, and I am glad to see this new series that will make his captivating and heart-touching Bible teaching available to many more readers. --Wayne Grudem, PhD, author of Systematic Theology

As a pastor and teacher, I'm always searching for commentaries that will help me gain a more accurate grasp of the text and a clearer understanding of what it means for us today. Not many can deliver on both fronts. But in this first volume of his New Testament Insights series, Chuck Swindoll nails it. I expect that this treatise on Romans and the entire series are destined to become a trusted and well-worn addition to my library. --Larry Osborne, pastor and author, North Coast Church, Vista, CA

Chuck always finds a way to bring to life ancient stories and abstract thoughts. He doesn't have a boring bone in his body. --Philip Yancey, author of What's So Amazing About Grace?

At a time when many people think that the Bible is irrelevant and distant to them, few people have helped to make the Bible accessible to people as much as Chuck Swindoll. Here he unpacks the most doctrinal book of Paul in a way that brings doctrine to life. The combination of solid biblical scholarship, simple and understandable language, lively explanatory illustrations, and relevant contemporary application ensures that this book will serve as a health-giving resource to today's church. --Ajith Fernando, National Director, Youth for Christ, Sri Lanka
