Deadfall Hotel By Steve Rasnic Tem

The Deadfall Hotel is where our nightmares go, it's where the dead pause to rest between worlds, and it's where Richard Carter and his daughter Serena go to rediscover life — if the things at the hotel don't kill them first.

Think of it as the vacation resort of the collective unconscious.

With the powerful prose that has earned him awards and accolades, Steve Rasnic Tem explores the roots of fear and society's fascination with things horrific, using the many-layered metaphor of the Deadfall Hotel. Drawing inspiration from literary touchstones John Gardner and Peter Straub, Tem elegantly delves into the dark corners of the human spirit. There he finds not only our fears, but ultimately our hopes.

Editorial Review

Review

"...just when you think you've found the lay of the land in this most rich and fertile of imaginative plains, and you're thrown a twist or turn, or simple line of speech masquerading as so much more. Just when you think you've nailed a certain style or emotion in the text and again it buckles and surprises."- Spooky Reads

"Deadfall Hotel is everything a horror novel should be. Steve Rasnic Tem is at the height of his powers with this effort. If you're a fan of horror, the weird, or just plain old great storytelling, give Deadfall Hotel a read. You won't regret it." FEARnet

"This is no ordinary novel. It is not a comfortable read and it is incredibly surreal. However, it is a book that must be read." Terror Tree

"A dark and moving story of love, loss and change, with a posse of horror kittens thrown into the mix." The Guardian

"Steve Rasnic Tem has created a strange and wonderful world, filled with the curious and the marvelous...as much a place of joy as it is of sorrow, something [he] captures brilliantly in this extraordinary novel." -- Maureen Kincaid Speller in zone-sf.com
