Editorial Review

Review

Christian teachers who have studied with Dr. Al Greene and attended his workshops and seminars have said that his wonderful insights opened for them new ways to think about the task God has given them to do. Having these insights available in this book will be a tremendous support for teachers and also for those of us who are educating future teachers. It will be particularly helpful in undergraduate and graduate education courses. --back cover

About the Author

Albert E. Greene, Ph.D., began his teaching ministry in a seminary in China. From that beginning God has called him to spend over 40 years in Christian education. He has helped found Christian schools, and for over 29 years he served as principal and superintendent of what today is known as Bellevue Christian School. He has continued to serve Christian education as a writer, professor, speaker, and lecturer.
