Werewolf's Claimed (Big City Pack, Book Four) By Marisa Chenery

Book four in the Big City Pack series. As werewolves go, Draven isn't exactly a spring chicken. At fifteen hundred years old, he's beyond ready to find his mate and settle down. He's watched as his pack mates introduced their women one by one. But the fairer sex doesn't stir him. He craves the hard planes and strength of a man's body. He yearns for the day when destiny delivers the one chosen for him. Wyatt has come to Buck Lake to spend his two-week vacation. It doesn't get off to the best start, however, when the bum motor of his fishing boat strands him in the water. Being rescued by a man who can only be described as a walking wet dream certainly improves his outlook. And when he finds himself in a heated embrace with his rescuer, his whole trip is made. But Draven has a secret. And a former pack member hell bent on revenge would like nothing more than to destroy any chance the new couple has at a happily ever after.
